WHERE STately OAKS AND BROAD MAGNOLIAS
SHADE INSPIRING HALLS,
THERE STANDS OUR DEAR OLD ALMA MATER
WHO TO US RECALLS
FOND MEMORIES THAT WAKEN IN OUR HEARTS

A TENDER GLOW,
AND MAKE US HAPPY FOR THE LOVE
THAT WE HAVE LEARNED TO KNOW.
ALL HAIL TO THEE OUR ALMA MATER,
MOLDER OF MANKIND,
MAY GREATER GLORY, LOVE UNENDING

BE FOREVER THINE.
OUR WORTH IN LIFE WILL BE THY WORTH
WE PRAY TO KEEP IT TRUE,
AND MAY THY SPIRIT LIVE IN US...

CHAMPIONSHIP LEGACY

1 WCWS MOST OUTSTANDING PLAYER

Kristin Schmidt earned Women's College World Series Most Outstanding Player honors at the 2004 WCWS, making her the only player to not win the national championship and earn the honor outright.

3 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES APPEARANCES

LSU is one of five schools in SEC history with multiple Women's College World Series appearances. The Tigers along with Florida, Georgia and Tennessee have tallied a winning record in WCWS play.

3 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

The Tigers have had three CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in the 16-year history of the program, while only one program in the SEC has had more than four.

5 SEC CHAMPIONSHIPS

LSU has claimed a SEC-leading five regular season championships highlighted by four consecutive crowns from 1999-2002. Only three other schools in SEC history - Alabama, Florida and Georgia have claimed multiple regular season titles.

5 SEC TOURNAMENT TITLES

LSU has won an impressive five SEC Tournament titles and has advanced to the championship game in nine of the past 14 seasons.

14 ALL-AMERICANS

The Tigers have 14 NFCA All-Americans in the 16-year history of the program, second-most of any school in the SEC.

14 NCAA REGIONAL APPEARANCES

LSU has racked up 13 NCAA Tournament appearances, including seven-straight from 1998-2004. The Tigers are tied for the most NCAA trips among SEC schools since 1997.

783 VICTORIES

LSU has racked up 783 wins, the fourth-most in the nation since reinstating softball in 1997.

“TIGER PARK IS A WONDERFUL VISUAL REPRESENTATION OF NOT ONLY THE COMMITMENT TO THE VERY DESERVING LSU SOFTBALL TEAM, BUT FURTHER, TO WOMEN’S ATHLETICS.”

CHERI KEMPF

Commissioner/President - National Pro Fastpitch
Broadcast Analyst - ESPN, Cox Sports Television, Fox Sports Network

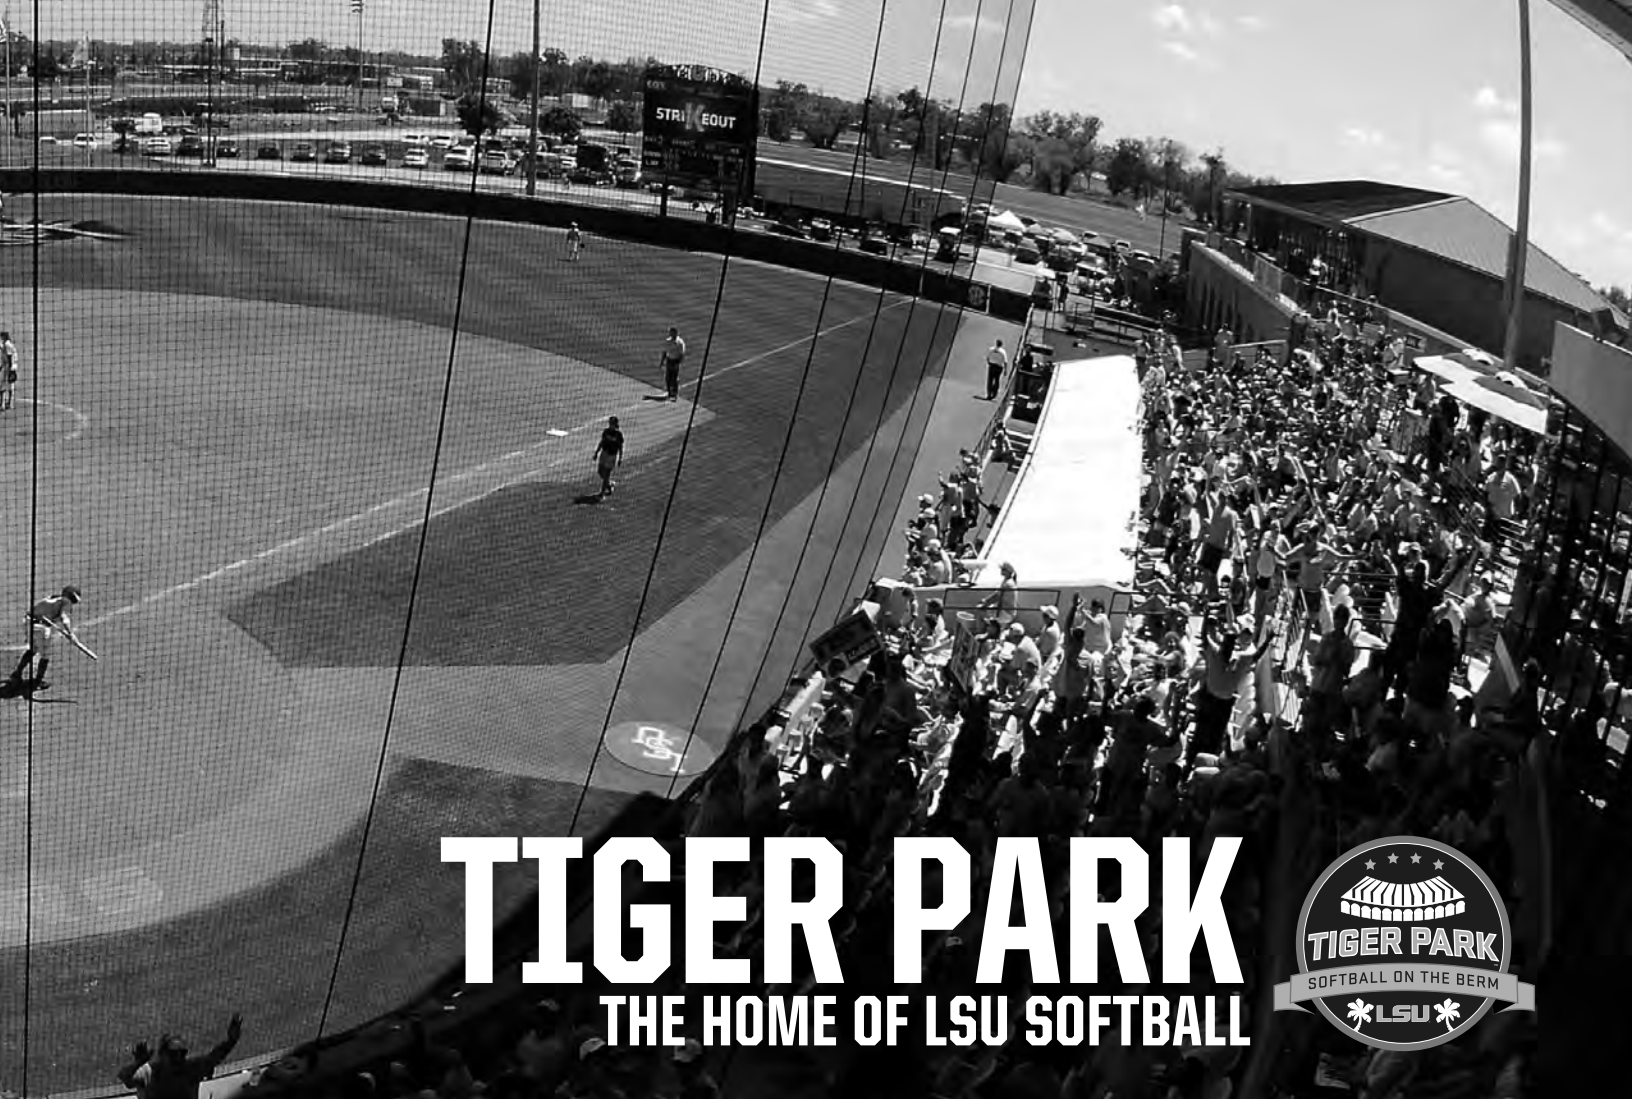

RATED FIFTH-BEST BUILDING OF LSU ARCHITECTURE

“Best seen at night, when its gables and overhang seem to brighten into shimmering white sails winging through cool ebony skies, the softball stadium shows that LSU can come up with a building that plays to something other than the local taste for plantation imagery and Greco-Roman bric-a-brac. Welling out of a hillock in a way that suggests strong shoulders on the brink of swinging a home run, the softball stadium evidences a modest freshness that brings a smile and savors of popcorn and hot dogs.”

The 2013 LSU Softball Media Guide is produced by the LSU Sports Information Office and has been rated among the top seven collegiate softball publications in the nation for eight of the last 11 seasons. The 2012 media guide was awarded "Best in the Nation" status for the first time in program history by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The publication also collected second-place finishes in 2005 and 2011 followed by third-place rankings in 2004, 2007 and 2010, a fifth-place finish in 2006 and a seventh-place showing in 2002.

SOCIAL MEDIA

LSU has been on the cutting edge in college athletics when it comes to integrating social media into its traditional website and publications. Through its sports-specific Facebook and Twitter sites, LSU offers its fans in-game updates, behind-the-scenes access to coaches and student-athletes and breaking news.

LSU softball has over 20,000 followers between its Facebook and Twitter pages. Coach Beth Torina keeps her followers up to date with the softball program on her Twitter handle @BethTorina.

MEDIA TRAINING

LSU is one of the few schools where student-athletes go through media training to enhance their communication skills. Dr. Tommy Karam and Dr. Shirley White are two experts in the field who give training sessions to student-athletes on campus. The team's film room turns into a mock press conference setting to get student-athletes acclimated to giving interview in front of both print and electronic media. Karam and White record the mock interviews on camera and then provide feedback, allowing the student-athletes to become more comfortable and confident when doing actual interviews.

SEC ON ESPN

In 2009-10, ESPN and the Southeastern Conference reached a milestone 15-year agreement. ESPN acquired rights to every SEC home football game, excluding those on the CBS network broadcast package. The ESPN family of networks serves as the exclusive national cable home and syndication rights holder for the conference. LSU has made 24 ESPN appearances since 2010 and had every pitch of the team's run to the 2012 Women's College World Series televised by the worldwide leader.

Director of Operations Quinlan Duhon earned her bachelor's degree in general business from LSU in December 2008 and is currently pursuing her master's in sports management.

34 of 35 LSU softball four-year letterwinners from 1997-2012 have received their bachelor's degree, including Katie Guillory and Juliana Santos. Morgan Russell is scheduled to graduate in May 2013 and is serving as a student coach on this year's team.

"Through workshops, service projects, and social events, CHAMPS, brings LSU student-athletes information that will prepare them for the biggest game of all - the game of life!"

-SHAQUILLE O'NEAL, LSU ALL-AMERICAN AND 15-TIME NBA ALL-STAR

JOB EXPERIENCE

LSU student-athletes regularly get hands-on training for various jobs beyond their playing days. Senior catcher Lauren Houston (above) worked for the Geaux Team during the 2012 football season under the supervision of Associate Director Julie Cribbs in the LSU Event Management Department.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

STUDENT AFFAIRS AND THE SHAQUILLE O'NEAL LIFE SKILLS PROGRAM

CAREER/PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

In order for student-athletes to be truly prepared for their careers, it is the goal of the Student Affairs and the Shaquille O'Neal Life Skills Program to ensure that each student-athlete will leave LSU with a professional resume, cover letter, and interview experience. The program has three phases: career preparation, the "job project" and a career symposium. Many LSU student-athletes gain experience with career-developing jobs in the community during the summer months.

HOW CAN CHAMPS HELP?

The CHAMPS (Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success)/Life Skills program was developed by the NCAA to help prepare student-athletes for the challenges of life beyond the playing field. By focusing on "real life" skills and personal development, the CHAMPS program not only assists student-athletes with meeting daily challenges but also enhances their growth in college years and beyond.

HEALTH/WELLNESS

The goal of the Health & Wellness component of the Student Affairs division is to inform and educate student-athletes about the various health and wellness related issues that they will encounter throughout their tenure at LSU and beyond.

DIVERSITY, INCLUSION & CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

The Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes strives to celebrate, highlight, affirm, and embrace the diversity of LSU student-athletes. They provide an environment that is respectful of cultural, racial, and ethnic differences by acknowledging their individuality and uniqueness. In addition, the programs emphasize the importance of giving back and citizenship by engaging in the University and surrounding community.

"I wanted to focus on creating something that was close to my heart and would hopefully make a difference for children. When the Miracle League baseball organization for special needs children first started, I instantly fell in love with all the kids and their families. I wanted to expand this idea by allowing other special needs children to play sports and be physically active. I started visiting local schools and played a variety of sports with the special needs kids every week. We've played multiple sports including softball/baseball, football, kickball, and soccer."

- FORMER PITCHER BRITTANY MACK

Leading into the 2012 season, Brittany Mack created and championed the "Geaux Play" program to benefit the Miracle League Association at Cypress Mounds in Baton Rouge. Mack challenged the LSU softball community to share the gift of sports with special needs children. Fans donated over 400 items of new and gently used sports equipment throughout the season. On April 22, Mack played host to "Geaux Play Day" at Tiger Park where she invited all the children to be her special VIP guests. The children were honored on the field before the game, and the Tigers played a special game afterwards. For her efforts, Mack was recognized on the SEC's All-Community Service Team and Scholar-Athlete of the Year in addition to being a finalist for the Lowe's Senior Class Award.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

OKC PENCIL DRIVE

LSU's community service outreach extended to Oklahoma in March 2012 as part of the Amateur Softball Association (ASA) of America and USA Softball's pencil drive. The Tigers collected over 1,200 pencils at its February home games to donate to North Highland Elementary School in Oklahoma City.

STRIKEOUT OVARIAN CANCER TEAL GAME

The LSU softball team played host to the program's inaugural "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event held on April 21, 2012 versus Ole Miss. Head coach Beth Torina's mother, Betty Dieter who is an ovarian cancer survivor, threw out one of the game's ceremonial first pitches. There also was a pregame recognition where survivors of ovarian cancer and other gyn cancers were recognized at the ballpark. Wearing their teal jerseys, the Tigers won a 2-1 decision over Ole Miss in front of 1,815 fans, the sixth largest crowd in Tiger Park history. LSU will welcome Missouri on Saturday, April 20, 2013 for this season's "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event.

NATIONAL GIRLS & WOMEN IN SPORTS DAY

LSU softball visited Parkview Baptist and St. Luke's Episcopal Schools to speak to female students at assemblies about the importance of participating in athletics as part of National Girls and Women in Sports Day. The Tigers stressed the importance of health and wellness in addition to touching upon the importance of Title IX to the students. Afterwards, the players quizzed the students about prominent female athletes and handed out prizes.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy, as well as the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy and a full-service vision center.

HYDROTHERAPY TREATMENT

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard training center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

BROUSSARD ATHLETIC TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

The LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium, was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment.

Melissa Moore and the weight room staff conduct workout sessions that include both strength and endurance training.

LSU GREATS

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 20 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010.

50 Bob Pettit

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 Shaquille O'Neal

O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

40 Rudy Macklin

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

Tommy Casanova (left), Seimone Augustus (middle) and Rudy Macklin (right) were the last LSU greats to have their jerseys retired during the 2009-10 athletic year.

About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

37 Tommy Casanova

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

19 Ben McDonald

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

33 Seimone Augustus

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the 2012 WNBA Finals MVP after winning a world title. She also led the United States to a gold medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games.

O'Neal, one of the most quotable athletes on the planet, joined the long list of prominent LSU alumni when he earned his degree in general studies in December 2000. O'Neal announced his retirement from the NBA in June 2010 after a brilliant Hall of Fame career of 19 seasons.

Seimone Augustus

Seimone Augustus received her degree in 2005 after just three years at LSU and while earning NCAA Women's Basketball National Player of the Year honors twice. She was the first pick of the 2006 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx and teamed with fellow LSU alum Sylvia Fowles to claim an Olympic gold medal for the United States in 2008.

RACHELE FICO

The 2013 LSU softball team is ready to "Rule the Day" and get back to the pinnacle of the sport with a return trip to the Women's College World Series under second-year coach Beth Torina.

The Tigers embraced the philosophy of "Whatever It Takes" last season as seven seniors left their mark on the program and built on LSU's championship legacy.

"The most important thing was the way we did it last year," Torina said. "On paper, I think there were a lot of teams in the country that were more talented than we were. The fact was our team truly came together, and they accomplished their goals by using their will, their determination and their hearts. To me, that's the biggest lesson we learned during the entire College World Series experience."

Once again, LSU has all of the necessary ingredients in place with a solid nucleus of experience, depth and talented newcomers to reach its goals.

"The theme 'Rule the Day' is all about details and earning it every day," Torina said.

"The Player of the Day gets a ruler, and it's the measuring stick of the day. You earned it, you did the work and you were the player that stood out the most. It's about ruling everything we do and not just our practices. We want them to rule every day and look at it as a day-to-day process not a season long goal. We try to rule every detail we come across during the day."

"This team understands that they have to be themselves," Torina continued. "They have to win and get to their goals in their own way. There's no doubt that they are a very different type of team. I think the taste and experience of the College World Series is something that will take us a long way. I'm making them understand that isn't something that entitles them or gives them extra benefits. We preach that to them on a daily basis."

THE BATTERY

LSU has had a longstanding tradition as one of the nation's premier pitching programs as five different players have collected NFCA All-American status over the years. One of those five hurlers is back for her senior campaign in Rachele Fico.

Fico, a 2013 All-SEC Preseason-Team selection and 2012 USA Softball Player of the Year Top 25 finalist, highlights a four-arm arsenal. She racked up 20 victories, while her 1.12 ERA and 13 shutouts were fourth and fifth nationally, respectively.

Fico secured marquee victories over eventual national champion Alabama along with a pair of victories over Texas AGM and Missouri en route to NCAA College Station Regional and NCAA Columbia Super Regional MVP honors last season. The Connecticut native enters her senior season 35 Ks away from becoming the fifth pitcher in program history to reach 600 career strikeouts.

"There's no doubt that Rachele had a spectacular season and was a big part of our program returning to the Women's College World Series," Torina said. "The great thing about Rachele is that she's always wants to get better and has worked extremely hard during the offseason. She's a fantastic competitor, a great teammate and the type of person that is far less interested in individual awards and more invested in what she can do to help her team win."

All Meghan Patterson has done in her first two seasons in the Purple and Gold has won 10 of her 11 career decisions and recorded 131 strikeouts over her 92.0 innings of action. She was touched up for only two runs over her 32 frames last season.

"Meghan has truly waited her turn," Torina said. "Sitting behind Brittany Mack and Rachele Fico for the last two years is a tough job. She played that role to the absolute best you could ask someone. She is so talented and deserves every minute she will pitch this year. She has great pitches and moves the ball around the zone the best of anyone on this staff. She is capable of throwing any pitch in any count in any location."

Ashley Czechner is coming off a national championship season at Chattanooga State where she was named the NJCAA's Pitcher of the Year on the junior college level. She amassed a 37-4 record, a stifling 0.72 ERA and 370 strikeouts. When not in the infield, Blanka Bell also could see some time for the Tigers in the circle.

"Ashley is a gamer, I don't think I know everything there is to know about her just yet," Torina said. "I would like to see what she is capable of doing in competition. I feel she is one of those fierce competitors that when the game is on the line wants the ball."

Calling the shots for LSU behind the dish will be Lauren Houston and Kelsi Kloss. Houston has garnered 105 appearances over her three seasons and tallied a career-best .429 on-base percentage last season, while Kloss was a three-time All-Empire League honoree at Pacifica High School in California.

THE INFIELD

LSU's infield will have a veteran presence as three of the four starters from last year's WCWS squad return to the fold.

Allison Falcon, one of team's three captains, will split time at shortstop and second base during the season. She bounced back with a breakout sophomore campaign after missing most of 2011 due to injury. She was second on the team in batting average, homers and RBIs during LSU's run to OKC.

"The way Allison leads the team on the field is very different from her personality off the field," Torina said. "When I have her in the middle infield, it's almost like I don't have to coach. I think she's the one person on the team that could fit in with anyone on the team. It's because she has that good repore with her teammates not to mention she is ridiculously intelligent. She understands the game and understands exactly what we're needed her to do."

Blanka Bell, the 2012 Florida Gatorade Player of the Year and NFCA High School All-America First-Team honoree, is penciled in to see action at both middle infield spots. During her prep career, she led Chamberlain High School to a 7A championship and was a USA Softball Junior National Team Camp participant.

Rikki Alcaraz also will be in the middle infield mix and made the most of her opportunities with hits in nine of her 16 starts last season.

Tammy Wray returns to the hot corner and has started 112 of a potential 123 games over her first two seasons. She will look to regain the offensive form of her freshman season where she belted eight home runs and 33 RBIs to rank second and third on the team.

Dylan Supak and Sandra Simmons are candidates to start at first base. Supak, the incumbent with 43 starts last season, delivered five multi-RBI efforts to rank third on the team. Simmons, a hard-nosed southpaw, is a four-time All-Sunset League recipient at Marina High School in California.

Along with Bell and Simmons, Hailey Smith is another one of the three ESPN Top 100 recruits the Tigers bring into the infield from Stonewall Jackson High School in Virginia. She is a candidate to log time at third base and designated player.

"We have some very talented freshmen in Bell, Simmons and Smith," Torina said. "They're very aggressive hitters and very aggressive players. I feel these three are very capable of setting the tone for our offense and bringing our lineup a different mentality."

THE OUTFIELD

LSU's outfield will have to fill the void left by a pair of experienced starters in Ashley Langoni and Ashley Applegate. The duo combined for 406 career starts, and Langoni was the team's leader in batting average, home runs and RBIs. However, the Tigers have the ability to not miss a beat and will once again be characterized by speed, power and depth.

Simone Heyward and A.J. Andrews, who collected 2011 and 2012 All-SEC Freshman-Team accolades, will more than likely start in centerfield and one of the corner positions between them.

Andrews was second on the team in runs scored primarily from the leadoff spot. She also swiped a team-high 15 stolen bases and provided one of the most memorable moments of the season when she crossed the plate for the game's only run on an infield sacrifice fly versus South Florida at the WCWS.

Heyward came on strong in the postseason after missing a majority of her sophomore season with an injury. She cranked her lone extra-base hit of the season, a three-run double, to erase a 1-0 hole during the deciding game of the NCAA Columbia Super Regional at Missouri.

"We have wonderful speed in the outfield," Torina said. "The group has learned a lot during the fall season under the tutelage our new volunteer coach Sharonda McDonald, who was a former All-American at Texas A&M. She has impacted them so much not only with their defense, but with slapping on the offensive side."

Jacee Blades, Alex Boulet, Alayna Falcon, Katie Guillory and Kailey McCasland give the Tigers a lot of depth in the outfield. When not in the outfield, all five are in the running to see at-bats in the designated player role.

ALLISON FALCON

SIMONE HEYWARD

LAUREN HOUSTON

TAMMY WRAY

A.J. ANDREWS

Blades saw 21 of her 27 starts at DP a season ago, and her speed gives LSU another left-handed option in the lineup. She shared the team-lead with five sacrifice hits.

Boulet notched 27 of her 34 appearances last season as a pinch runner and had a knack for scoring the game-winning run on multiple occasions. She also registered an outfield assist against Arizona State at the WCWS.

Falcon was a two-time All-District and an All-State performer out of Donaldsonville.

Guillory was chosen as one of the team's three captains leading into the season. She missed the entire 2012 season due to injury and will be in the mix to see time in the outfield this season.

"Katie is the vocal leader for the team and this year's class of captains," Torina said. "She truly is the heart of this program. There is a huge difference in the way our team prepares and performs when Katie is around. This was more than obvious when we got to have her back in our dugout during last season's postseason run. She works so hard herself, but she also pushes the others to expect the same effort in their own performance."

Moving from the infield to the outfield is McCasland, a powerful right-hander. She earned 19 starts and also played a valuable pinch hitting role late last season where she recorded RBIs against Florida, Tennessee and Texas A&M.

THE SCHEDULE

The Tigers continued their long-standing tradition of squaring off against the nation's elite. LSU will face at least one NCAA Tournament participant during every week of the season. In total, the 2013 slate features 37 contests against 20 teams that qualified for the NCAA's last season.

"The 2013 schedule is very exciting and has a great mix of teams from some of the strongest conferences in the country," Torina said. "The non-conference portion will be a real test for us. I firmly believe that challenging our team all season long prepares us to be successful in the postseason and teaches us so much about ourselves."

LSU will play host to back-to-back non-conference tournaments to start the season, including the Tiger Classic [Feb. 8-10] on opening weekend. The Tigers will meet North Carolina and Tulsa, a pair of NCAA squads, in addition to Hampton and Purdue.

After a mid-week trip to Ole Miss [Feb. 13], the Tigers welcome Memphis, Nicholls State, North Dakota State and Virginia to Tiger Park for the Purple & Gold Challenge [Feb. 15-17].

LSU returns to the prestigious Cathedral City Classic [Feb. 21-24] in Palm Springs, Calif. for the third time in the last six seasons. The Tigers will take on Pac-12 powers Arizona and UCLA in addition to BYU, Ohio State and UNLV.

LSU is scheduled to face fellow WCWS participant Oregon along with Louisville, Michigan, Penn State and Syracuse at the Citrus Classic [March 1-3] hosted by ESPN Wide World of Sports in Orlando, Fla. to conclude the non-conference tournament schedule.

The Tigers will play mid-week non-conference home doubleheaders versus Georgia Southern [March 19] and Samford [March 30]. LSU also will meet in-state foes Nicholls State [March 13], Southeastern Louisiana [March 26] and Northwestern State [April 30] for mid-week single games inside the friendly confines of Tiger Park.

The Tigers will make a return trip to Florida State [April 3] for a twin bill. LSU also will travel to South Alabama [March 27] and McNeese State [April 17] for mid-week single game away contests.

The rugged SEC schedule consists of eight three-game series. The new 24-game format was released last March and eliminated the league's mid-week doubleheaders.

LSU will travel to Mississippi State [March 8-10] on SEC opening weekend before welcoming Kentucky [March 15-17] and South Carolina [March 22-24] to Tiger Park during consecutive weekends.

The Tigers also play host to Missouri [April 19-21] and Alabama [April 25-27] along with trips to Arkansas [April 5-7] and Texas A&M [April 12-14]. LSU will not face Auburn, Florida, Ole Miss or Tennessee as part of its SEC slate. The 10-team SEC Tournament will be held May 8-11 hosted by Kentucky.

"The changes in the SEC will be a big adjustment for our team and our fans," Torina said. "Adding two powerhouse teams like Texas A&M and Missouri will just continue to grow our league and make it as tough as any in the country. We know that we have a challenge every time we take the field in SEC play. Facing these challenges will only make each team in our conference stronger and more successful in the postseason."

HEAD COACH BETH TORINA 6TH SEASON OVERALL • 2ND SEASON AT LSU

Beth Torina heads into her second season at the helm of the LSU softball program after she returned the Tigers to national prominence and earned a 2012 Women's College World Series berth during her inaugural campaign.

The trip to the 2012 WCWS was the program's third overall appearance on college softball's biggest stage and program's first since 2004. The Tigers became only the third team since the current regional/super regional format that was adopted in 2005 to knock off two seeded teams in No. 8 Texas A&M and No. 9 Missouri on the road en route to Oklahoma City.

Torina guided the LSU pitching staff to a stifling 1.58 staff ERA, tied for second-lowest in the SEC. The 1-2 punch of Rachele Fico and Brittany Mack amassed 36 of LSU's 40 victories during 2012 in the circle.

Fico garnered 20 victories, a stout 1.12 ERA, racked up 221 strikeouts, limited opponents to a .183 batting average and tossed 13 shutouts over 230.1 innings. Her 1.12 ERA and 13 shutouts were fourth and fifth, respectively, in the NCAA rankings. For her efforts, Fico became the sixth player in program history to notch National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-America First-Team accolades.

Mack finished her career as one of LSU's most decorated hurlers. She came away with 56 victories and is one of five pitchers in program history to record over 600 career strikeouts. In 2012, Mack created and championed the "Geaux Play" program where new or gently used sports equipment was donated at home games to benefit the Miracle League Association at Cypress Mounds. She was named a Lowe's Senior Class Award Top 30 Finalist and the SEC's Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year, the first time a LSU softball player has received that award.

Torina also serves as the head coach of the USSSA Florida Pride of the National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) League. Their roster features multiple Olympians which includes ESPN softball analyst Jessica Mendoza along with Caitlin Lowe and Natasha Watley. The Pride made Mack the NPF's No. 1 overall draft pick and captured the Ringer Cup trophy in 2012 awarded to the league's regular season champion. Prior to assuming head coaching duties, Torina served as an assistant coach for two seasons under Florida head coach Tim Walton. The Pride won the 2010 NPF championship.

Before joining the LSU program in June 2011, Torina took Florida International of the Sun Belt Conference to new heights. The two-time SBC Coach of the Year led the Golden Panthers to a 129-111 record in four seasons and directed FIU to its first NCAA Tournament victory in 2010.

The 2010 campaign saw the Golden Panthers sweep the SBC postseason awards as Kasey Barrett was the league's Pitcher of the Year, Ashley McClain was tabbed Player of the Year and Brie Rojas garnered Freshman of the Year status.

Individually, Torina coached 10 players to 14 All-SBC selections sparked by Jessy Alfonso and McClain, who have picked up All-SBC First-Team honors during each of the last two seasons. McClain also has collected 2010 and 2011 NFCA All-South Region First-Team accolades.

Torina spent five seasons as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Houston from 2003-07. The Cougars claimed the 2007 Conference USA regular season and tournament titles. One of her most prized recruits, Angel Shamblin, went on to become a two-time C-USA Pitcher of the Year, an NFCA All-South Region selection and a 2008 NFCA All-American. In addition to Shamblin, Torina saw seven UH hurlers receive All-Conference USA accolades during her tenure.

Torina began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Stetson University from 2000-02, leaving her mark on the Hatters' softball program after helping lead the 2001 squad to a share of the regular season Atlantic Sun Conference championship. Torina's pitchers set a quartet of school records, including wins (45), shutouts (20), strikeouts (385) and strikeouts per seven innings (6.70).

Torina earned her B.S. in health sciences and occupational therapy from Florida in 2000. During her playing career with the Gators, she was a member of the 1998 Southeastern Conference regular season championship team as the squad's top pitcher. She posted 60 career wins, which currently ranks tied for fourth in the UF record book. In the classroom, Torina was a GTE Academic All-America and a finalist for the 2000 H. Boyd McWhorter SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Torina has established an active community service function within the softball program as the Tigers regularly visit hospitals and schools in the Baton Rouge area. She is personally involved in several philanthropic causes highlighted by the program's annual "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event where LSU wears teal jerseys to celebrate survivors and support the cause of spreading ovarian cancer awareness. Torina's mother, Betty Dieter, is a three-year ovarian cancer survivor.

Torina and her husband, Nick, were married in January 2010. The couple lives in Baton Rouge.

"STRIKEOUT OVARIAN CANCER" EVENT A SUCCESS

The LSU softball team played host to the program's inaugural "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event held on April 21, 2012 versus Ole Miss.

Coach Torina's mother, Betty Dieter who is an ovarian cancer survivor, threw out one of the game's ceremonial first pitches. There also was a pregame recognition where survivors of ovarian cancer and other gyn cancers were recognized at the ballpark.

The Tigers wore teal jerseys to honor and celebrate ovarian cancer survivors. LSU won a 2-1 decision over the Rebels in-front of 1,815 fans, the sixth largest crowd in Tiger Park history, behind Brittany Mack's 11-strikeout performance. Ashley Langoni and Ashleigh Kuhn provided the RBIs.

"Spreading awareness and celebrating survivors of ovarian cancer is something that is near and dear to my heart," Torina said. "This dreaded disease affects a lot of families, and we're looking forward to honoring these courageous survivors."

Ovarian cancer is the fifth leading cause of cancer death among women in the United States and occurs in 1 in 71 women. The American Cancer Society shows over 15,000 women will die this year alone and more than 20,000 new cases of ovarian cancer will be diagnosed.

Ovarian cancer is very treatable when caught early. However, pap tests do not detect ovarian cancer. Experts recommend a pelvic exam, a transvaginal sonogram and a CA 125 blood test.

Only 20 percent of ovarian cancer cases are caught early and often are difficult to diagnose because symptoms may be subtle and easily confused with other diseases. When ovarian cancer is caught before it has spread outside the ovaries, 92 percent of patients will survive five years.

LSU will welcome Missouri on Saturday, April 20 for this year's "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event with first pitch scheduled for 6 p.m.

ASSISTANT COACH HOWARD DOBSON 2ND SEASON AT LSU

Howard Dobson enters his second season as an assistant coach at LSU. He serves as the program's hitting coach and assists with recruiting.

Dobson returned to the Women's College World Series for the third time in his coaching career with the Tigers during the 2012 season.

LSU's offense drew 209 walks in 2012, the second-highest total in program history. The Tigers also executed in clutch situations and batted 35 points higher than their season average with runners in scoring position.

Ashley Langoni joined former All-American Leslie Klein (2006) and Rachel Mitchell (2008) as the only players to capture the program's triple crown during a single season. Langoni concluded her career with 29 home runs to rank fifth in LSU's record book.

During the summer of 2012, Dobson was selected to serve as an assistant coach on the USA Softball Elite Team. He also was one of 24 coaches named to the 2011-12 United States Women's National Team coaching pool.

Dobson spent the previous four seasons as the head coach of Southern Miss. During his tenure with the Golden Eagles, he coached seven All-Conference USA performers highlighted by Megan Hill. The four-time All-Conference USA pick set eight offensive program records, including hits (205), RBIs (151), runs scored (148), home runs (48) and total bases (398). She also garnered NFCA All-Midwest First-Team accolades, the program's first recipient since the 2000 season.

Prior to Southern Miss, Dobson served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma for five seasons. He helped the Sooners continue to develop their reputation as not only a Big 12 offensive powerhouse but a national offensive juggernaut.

OU topped the Big 12 in scoring and also ranked among the league's top two in batting average during all five of his seasons in Norman. The Sooners had seven players secure NFCA All-American honors in addition to 15 NFCA All-Midwest Region selections and 20 All-Big 12 honorees. Norrele Dickson, Heather Scaglione and Kristin Vesely racked up multiple NFCA All-America selections under Dobson.

Dobson played an instrumental role as OU made a pair of trips to the Women's College World Series trips in 2003 and 2004. The Sooners also made four NCAA Super Regional runs (2003, 2004, 2005, 2007) during their five consecutive trips to the postseason sparked by a 55-win campaign in 2007, which is tied for third in the OU record books.

Before Oklahoma, Dobson contributed to the establishment of Houston's softball program in 2000. The Orange, Texas, native had players notch 10 All-Conference USA accolades in two seasons fueled by Kristen Glowacz's 2002 C-USA Freshman of the Year award. The 2002 Cougars paced C-USA in hits (480), runs scored (279), slugging percentage (.448), RBIs (244) and home runs (47).

Dobson began his coaching career in the Pelican State with stops at Southeastern Louisiana, McNeese State and Barbe High School in Lake Charles. He directed his team at Barbe to a 5A state championship and gained valuable experience working at collegiate skills camps along with coaching on the international level. In the summer of 1999, his international team won the German Open.

A former all-conference performer at Panola College in Carthage, Texas, Dobson went on to finish his collegiate baseball career at McNeese State where he graduated with a degree in health and human performance and English in 1997.

Dobson and his wife, Katharine, have a seven-year old son Trip. They live in Baton Rouge.

ASSISTANT COACH LINDSAY LEFTWITCH 2ND SEASON AT LSU

Lindsay Leftwich embarks on her second season as an assistant coach at LSU. She is involved with all aspects of the program which include defense, hitting, recruiting and camps.

The former Northwestern State standout has been with Beth Torina for every step of her five-year head coaching career which includes LSU's run to the 2012 Women's College World Series.

The Tigers came away with a .964 team fielding percentage in 2012, the fourth-best defensive clip in the SEC. Ashley Langoni totaled 74 putouts and four assists from her left field post as an All-SEC Defensive Team pick. LSU's catching tandem of Morgan Russell and Lauren Houston gunned down a combined 21 base runners attempting to steal. The total equaled the program's second-highest single season mark.

Before coming to LSU, Leftwich spent four seasons as Torina's top assistant at Florida International. The Golden Panthers collected 14 All-Sun Belt selections sparked by a sweep of the league's 2010 postseason awards where Kasey Barrett picked up the SBC's Pitcher of the Year, Ashley McClain notched SBC Player of the Year and Brie Rojas secured SBC Freshman of the Year. McClain also has come away with National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-South Region First-Team honors in 2010 and 2011.

FIU posted a 38-21 record and claimed the program's second-ever NCAA Tournament bid and first-ever NCAA Tournament victory in 2010. The Golden Panthers improved their win total during three of her four seasons, and she aided Torina to a pair of SBC Coach of the Year awards.

Prior to FIU, Leftwich served as a graduate assistant at New Mexico. She was in charge of softball operations and assisted with daily coaching duties during the 2007 season. In 2006, Leftwich worked as the pitching coach at Wichita State where she helped the Shockers compile a 35-23 record.

Leftwich, a native of Houston, Texas, opened her coaching career as a student assistant at Northwestern State. She aided in coaching the offense and catchers in addition to playing an instrumental role in recruiting, fundraising, alumni relations and camps.

Leftwich enjoyed a three-year playing career with the Demons highlighted by NFCA All-Southeast Region, All-Southland Conference and All-Louisiana Second-Team selections in 2002.

NSU racked up a program-record 45 victories en route to a NCAA Tournament berth during the 2002 campaign. Leftwich drove home 44 RBIs, which are currently tied for third-most in program history for a single season, while her 123 assists on the infield paced the Southland Conference.

During her career, Leftwich added five Southland Conference along with a pair of Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) Hitter of the Week awards. She finished her career ranked fifth in both home runs and RBIs at NSU after a back injury held her out of her senior season.

An excellent student-athlete, Leftwich garnered numerous academic accolades, including Verizon Academic All-District Team recognition in 2002 and 2004 and NFCA Scholar Athlete recognition from 2001-04. In 2005, she earned a bachelor's degree in psychology and a minor in art and substance abuse prevention.

VOLUNTEER COACH
SHARONDA
MCDONALD
1ST SEASON AT LSU

Sharonda McDonald, a National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) League All-Star and former Texas A&M standout, heads into her first season on the LSU softball coaching staff. Her responsibilities will include working with the LSU outfielders, the offense's short game and assist in camp operations.

Prior to LSU, McDonald spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Ohio University highlighted by a 2011 Mid-American Conference (MAC) East Division title and an appearance in the 2011 MAC Championship Game.

The Bobcats belted a combined 82 home runs during the 2011 and 2012 seasons, the top two single season marks in program history. Lauren Gellerman, a 2012 National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-Mideast Second-Team and All-MAC First-Team selection, along with Raven King shared a program single season record with 13 dingers apiece.

During her tenure, Ohio had six different players secure All-MAC accolades. Jillian Van Wagnen turned in a team-leading .362 batting average, 64 hits and 30 stolen bases during the 2012 campaign as an All-MAC Second-Team pick. She finished her career with 69 total steals, second-most in program history.

McDonald began her coaching career in her native city of Houston, Texas as an assistant coach for Texas Southern in 2009. Under her supervision, the Tigers more than double their stolen base output from the season before sparked by Latrece Shello's 17 steals.

McDonald has played six professional seasons split between the Akron Racers (2010-12) and Philadelphia Force (2007-08) of the NPF and a one-year stint with the Fiorini Softball Club (2009) of the Italian Professional League.

McDonald turned in a .331 batting average, fourth-best in the NPF and picked up 13 stolen bases en route to All-NPF honors during her rookie campaign in 2007. She followed that up with a .299 hitting clip and added 16 steals to claim a 2008 NPF All-Star selection. Over her two seasons with Philadelphia, McDonald compiled 84 total hits. She is coming off a .303 season and added 13 stolen bases with Akron and shared the NPF's Golden Spikes award with Amber Patton in 2012. The award is given to the player that leads the NPF in stolen bases.

A standout outfielder during her playing days for national power Texas A&M, McDonald played for the Aggies from 2004-07. In that time, she garnered NFCA All-Region honors three times and a quartet of All-Big 12 selections. She holds Aggie single-season records for runs scored (60) and stolen bases (48) and also ranks as the program's all-time leader in both categories. Her 48 steals in 2005 led the nation and helped her earn the 2005 NCAA Division I Softball Golden Shoe Award awarded to the nation's top baserunner.

McDonald holds A&M's sixth-best career average at .338 and is second all-time with 249 hits. She also boasts the Aggies' top three single-season stolen base marks. After concluding her collegiate career, McDonald spent a year with Texas A&M's strength and conditioning program where she worked the women's basketball, softball and volleyball programs.

McDonald received a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology from Texas A&M in 2008. She lives in Baton Rouge.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
QUINLAN
DUHON
4TH SEASON AT LSU

Quinlan Duhon moves into her fourth season as the Director of Operations for the LSU softball program after her exceptional four-year career from 2005-08. She also served as a student marketing assistant during the 2008-09 academic year following her playing career.

Duhon is responsible for handling all the behind-the-scenes aspects of the softball program which earned its third trip to the Women's College World Series in 2012. Her responsibilities include team travel, supporting camp operations, supervising player academic progress, ordering and distributing of equipment, organizing recruiting functions and campus visits, as well as serving as the program's liaison to the Diamond Backers Booster Club. She also oversees a staff of three student managers.

Duhon has been instrumental in the direction and growth of the team's footprint in the Baton Rouge community by coordinating the season ticket delivery program, assisting in the development of the program's "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event to raise awareness for ovarian cancer and being involved in the scheduling of the team's philanthropy projects.

Duhon has played a major role in keeping Tiger Park as the nation's state-of-the-art softball facility. The team's clubhouse received a complete graphics makeover following its 2012 WCWS run. Updated graphics also were installed on the ballpark's concourse and party deck.

On gameday, Duhon manages the coaching staff's T2 motion video file system from the press box and handles pregame motivational video pieces for the Tigers.

During her playing career, Duhon was a part of three NCAA Regional teams highlighted by the 2006 and 2007 Super Regional squads. She scored the walk-off, game-winning run in a 5-4 triumph over Louisiana-Lafayette in the 2006 NCAA Regional championship game.

LSU spent the duration of the 2007 season in the nation's Top 10 and compiled an impressive 55-12 record. The Tigers tallied series victories over both No. 1 Tennessee and No. 2 Alabama during the regular season to win its fourth SEC Western Division crown and fourth SEC Tournament title during the Yvette Girouard era.

Duhon had an outstanding postseason being named to both the NCAA Palo Alto Regional and Tempe Super Regional All-Tournament teams. She cranked three home runs in NCAA play, including a two-run shot as part of a 3-2 win against Cal State Northridge in the NCAA Regional opening round.

As one of three captains for the 2008 team, Duhon posted career-bests in batting average (.333), hits (54), home runs (11), RBIs (38), on-base (.424) and slugging percentage (.605) en route to an All-SEC and All-Louisiana Second-Team honors.

Duhon finished her LSU career ranked third belting 30 career home runs and is listed among the school's Top 10 in walks (68), RBIs (128), total bases (300) and sacrifice flies (13). She is one of only 11 players in program history to score over 100 runs and post over 150 career hits. The Youngsville native also was a four-time SEC Academic Honor Roll selection.

Duhon earned her bachelor's degree in general business from LSU 2008 and is currently is pursuing her master's degree in sports management with a scheduled graduation date of December 2013. She lives in Baton Rouge.

MATT DUNAWAY

Associate SID/Softball Contact

Matt Dunaway heads into his fifth season as an Associate Sports Information Director at LSU. He serves as the media relations contact for the Tiger softball and volleyball teams in addition to promoting LSU's community service efforts.

Dunaway has publicized volleyball All-American Brittnee Cooper along with softball All-American's Rachele Fico, Brittany Mack and Kirsten Shortridge while at LSU. During each of the last three seasons, the LSU softball media guide has earned a Top 3 national finish highlighted by the "Best in the Nation" award in 2012. He also fills as an analyst during softball road games and served as the play-by-play announcer for LSU volleyball team during the last two seasons.

Dunaway comes to LSU from Rice where he promoted the women's basketball and tennis teams in addition to sharing secondary football duties. He also was the analyst for the women's basketball broadcast team where Valeriya Berezynska was a third round pick of the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

Prior to Rice, Dunaway spent two years across town as a sports information assistant at the University of Houston. There, he was the primary contact for the Cougar softball, volleyball and tennis teams. The 2007 UH softball team won the Conference USA championship en route to a NCAA Regional berth as Angel Shamblin and Jessica Valis swept C-USA Pitcher and Player of the Year awards. The pair also earned NFCA All-South Region accolades.

Dunaway graduated from UCF in May 2005 with a BA in broadcast journalism from the Nicholson School of Communication. He was a student assistant in the sports information office where he shared media relations duties for the 2005 Golden Knight NCAA Regional Softball team that posted a 47-29-1 record. Stephanie Best was selected Atlantic Sun Player of the Year and NFCA All-Southeast Region honors.

As a student, Dunaway wrote for the Central Florida Future and KnightVision. He also held sports director duties for the student chapter of the UCF ISP Sports Network responsible for broadcasting volleyball, women's basketball, softball and baseball.

MELISSA MOORE

Associate Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Melissa Moore, one of the nation's top strength and conditioning coordinators, enters her seventh season at LSU working with the Tiger softball team.

Moore, a native of Enon, La., also coordinates the strength and conditioning of LSU women's basketball team and assists with the Tiger football program.

Moore came to LSU after stints at Georgia Tech and Elon as an assistant strength & conditioning coach. She spent two years at Georgia Tech working with Yellow Jackets' softball and women's tennis programs after a brief stint working with Elon's baseball, men's and women's soccer, women's basketball and track teams.

A graduate of Southern Miss, Moore spent two years working with the football, baseball, men's and women's basketball, soccer, tennis, softball and volleyball programs while working toward her master's degree.

CAROLE WALKER

Associate Director CCACSA & Academic Advisor

Carole Walker heads into her seventh year as an Associate Director in the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes (CCACSA). She also serves as a supervisor for an assistant director and an academic advisor in addition to overseeing continuing eligibility as well as handling new student-athlete orientation and recruitment for the Center.

Walker is the team academic advisor for LSU's women's basketball, soccer and softball programs in addition to coordinating the Summer Academic Success Program for new student-athletes.

Under her supervision, Dee Dee Henderson represented softball as an Academic All-America Third-Team selection in 2007. Former All-American Brittany Mack garnered two Capital One Academic All-District VI honors, and Alex Boulet was the recipient of the NCAA Elite 89 Award awarded to the student-athlete with the highest GPA at the 2012 Women's College World Series.

Prior to LSU, Walker served as an Athletic Academic Advisor at South Alabama before becoming an Athletic Academic Services Coordinator at Miami.

Walker graduated from Shaw University with a Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration and earned her Master's of Education in Higher Education Administration at Auburn. She was a member of the 2005-06 inaugural class for the NCAA Leadership Institute Ethnic Minority Females in addition to being awarded National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) Professional Promise Award in 2002.

PAMELA WORKMAN

Associate Athletic Trainer

Pamela Workman returns to her Alma Mater and enters her first season serving as an Associate Athletic Trainer for the LSU softball program.

Workman, a native of Opelousas, La., spent five seasons as an Assistant Athletic Trainer at Southern Miss. There, she spent four seasons with the baseball program which included a trip to the 2009 College World Series and a quartet of NCAA Regionals appearances. She also worked with the football, women's golf, cheer and dance programs during her time with the Golden Eagles.

Prior to joining USM's full-time athletic training program, she served as a graduate assistant working extensively with the football program. The Golden Eagles appeared in back-to-back bowl games and the 2006 Conference USA Championship Game.

Workman received her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2005. Two years later, she completed work on her master's degree in sport administration from Southern Miss.

Workman is certified and a current member of the National Athletic Trainers Association along with the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association.

The Diamond Backers are the official support group of the LSU softball program. Your membership will support a program that aims to build better student-athletes, leaders and ultimately people. This growth gives LSU softball an opportunity to maintain national prominence, contend for the SEC title, and ultimately, repeat trips to the Women's College World Series. For more information concerning the Diamond Backers, please call (225) 578-3947.

WHATEVER IT TAKES: 2012 TIGERS RETURN TO WCWS

The LSU softball team returned to the pinnacle of the sport and became only the third team since the current regional/super regional format was adopted in 2005 to qualify for the Women's College World Series. The Tigers knocked off two seeded teams and future SEC rivals in No. 8 Texas A&M and No. 9 Missouri on the road under first-year coach Beth Torina.

To get back to softball's biggest stage, LSU embraced the mantra of "Whatever It Takes". Torina gave puzzle pieces to the players for academic success, work in the community and key performances in practice and games throughout the season. Each piece had different people that had the 'it' factor, and the puzzle was completed leading into LSU's trip to the NCAA College Station Regional.

"This 'it' factor, we talked about creating it with this team, and it's that intangible factor that you can't necessarily put words on," Torina said. "We knew this team was a special group, they were driven, motivated and enjoyed taking the field everyday. It's obvious by the way they play. We wanted them to understand what the last piece of the puzzle was, what it took to get that last 'it' factor, to be that team that everybody wants to be like. It's amazing how they bought in to everything we asked them to do."

The Tigers started NCAA postseason play with a dramatic 1-0 victory over Texas State. Simone Heyward, making her first start since April 17, chopped an infield single down the third base line to start a three-hit barrage which ended with Juliana Santos' RBI-single.

FICO CONTINUES LSU'S ALL-AMERICAN LEGACY

Rachele Fico (pictured right) was selected among the nation's elite and became the sixth player in program history to come away with Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-American First-Team accolades in 2012.

Fico joins the elite company of Ashlee Ducote (1999, 2000), Stephanie Hastings (2000), Britni Sneed (2001, 2002), Killian Roessner (2007) and Kirsten Shortridge (2010) of Tiger players to accomplish this feat.

"It's an honor to have Rachele be a part of this elite group of quality softball players," head coach Beth Torina said. "She's very deserving and has worked extremely hard to get to this point in her career. Rachele is the backbone of our team and is a huge reason why our program has made it to the Women's College World Series. As a coach, I'm truly blessed to come to work every day and work with a pitcher like her."

Fico garnered a 20-13 record, while her 1.12 ERA and 13 shutouts ranked fourth and fifth nationally, respectively. In those 13 setbacks, Fico received only 10 total runs of support. The right-hander limited opponents to a .183 hitting clip and notched 221 strikeouts, fourth-best among the SEC leaders.

Fico won her first four NCAA postseason starts. She held opponents to 14 hits and recorded 21 strikeouts en route to NCAA College Station Regional and Columbia Super Regional MVP honors.

Fico became the seventh hurler in program history to reach the 50-win plateau in 2012 and enters her senior season 35 strikeouts away from becoming the fifth pitcher in program history to reach 600 career Ks.

MACK'S 'GEAUX PLAY' MAKES A DIFFERENCE

One of the most decorated pitchers in LSU history, Brittany Mack (pictured left) made just as much of an impact off the field.

Heading into her senior season coming off a 2011 Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-American campaign, Mack wanted to find a way to make an impact on the Baton Rouge community so she created and championed the "Geaux Play" program.

Through her relationship with the Miracle League Association at Cypress Mounds, Mack challenged the fans to share the gift of sports with special needs children. Fans donated over 400 items of new or gently used sports equipment at home games during the 2012 season.

Mack invited the children from the Miracle League Association and Baton Rouge schools as her VIP guests as part of "Geaux Play" day at Tiger Park on April 22. Afterwards, the children joined the LSU softball team on the field for a game.

Mack and her teammates volunteered with the Miracle League multiple times which included the championship event held in July. The Tigers interacted with the kids. Each player would pair up with one of the kids to be their "Angel", which means they helped them field, throw, hit and run safely around the bases.

For her efforts off the field, Mack was a LOWE's Senior Class Award finalist in addition to being the program's first SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and LSU's nomination for the SEC's H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Post-Graduate Scholarship.

Rachele Fico fired her second straight two-hit shutout in as many days as LSU stayed in the winner's bracket with a 2-0 triumph over Texas A&M. It marked only the fourth time that the high-octane Aggies failed to score a run on the season.

The Tigers scored both of their runs during the first inning as Allison Falcon delivered a bases loaded RBI single and an A&M throwing error gave LSU its second run.

In the NCAA College Station Regional championship, Brittany Mack put together a masterful performance in a 2-1 win and navigated her way through six scoreless innings before Aggies rallied for a run in the seventh.

LSU scored its two runs on a pinch-hit sacrifice fly from Kailey McCasland and a Dylan Supak infield single that was followed by a A&M throwing error.

The Tigers opened up the NCAA Columbia Super Regional and exploded for a 6-1 victory by roughing up Missouri All-American hurler Chelsea Thomas. Falcon led the way with a 2-for-3 effort and equaled a career-high with three RBIs. She put LSU on the board with two-out, two-run single during the third inning.

Missouri claimed a 5-1 win in 12 innings to even the best-of-three series at a game apiece. Despite Mack's career-best 17 strikeouts, LSU committed four errors as all five of Missouri's runs were unearned.

Mizzou grabbed an early 1-0 advantage in the winner-take-all third game. LSU rallied in the bottom of the third inning as Tammy Wray and A.J. Andrews drew walks sandwiched between a Morgan Russell hit batter. Heyward picked the most opportune time to notch her first extra-base hit of the season and cranked a three-run double to vault the Tigers ahead 3-1.

Fico retired 12 of the final 14 Missouri hitters she faced, and Ashley Langoni squeezed the games last out with a runner on second base.

"Coach Torina does an awesome job with me," Fico said. "She knows how I work, and how I operate. She always knows the right things to say. Whenever I run into trouble, it is because I get too uptight, and I am trying to do too much. She calmed me down, told me to trust my pitches, make them spin and make them move."

LSU carried the momentum into its opening game of the WCWS and fired out to a 2-0 lead on No. 1 California on a two-run, second inning single from Morgan Russell. The Golden Bears fired back with five unanswered runs highlighted by a three-run sixth inning.

LSU responded courtesy of an Ashley Langoni RBI double in the seventh inning and sent the tying run to the plate before Cal was able to escape with the 5-3 decision.

Facing elimination in a 0-0 contest versus No. 19 South Florida, Andrews used alert base running to score the game's only run on a sacrifice popout in the sixth inning.

On a 1-0 offering, Falcon popped up to shortstop Kourtney Salvarola. Since Salvarola was playing drawn in with the bases loaded, Andrews tagged from the third base bag and scampered home. Salvarola's throw was offline, high towards the first base line. That enabled Andrews to slide around the tag attempt head-first safely into home plate.

"I've been in softball for a long time, seen a lot of things," Torina said. "I don't remember if I've ever seen that before, but it was a pretty amazing, gutsy play by A.J. -- not me."

"She [Coach Torina] said 'Tag,' but I guess that doesn't mean go," Andrews said. "But really, I think, because she was facing backwards, so my instinct is just to try it. It was a really close game. I knew that it would come down to something really close, like a close play. I just wanted to be safe, and I just thought about how I could get safe."

Mack dealt a two-hit shutout to preserve the 1-0 win and claim her 16th victory of the season. It was her 15th career shutout which vaulted into a seventh-place tie on LSU's all-time list.

Defending national champion and No. 3 Arizona State ended LSU's run with a 6-0 win. The session attendance was 9,310, the largest number of fans to attend a softball game in program history.

Tigers Celebrate 'Strikeout Ovarian Cancer' with Win

On a night where LSU wore teal jerseys to celebrate survivors and spread awareness during its inaugural 'Strikeout Ovarian Cancer' event, it was only fitting that Ashleigh Kuhn secured the game-winning RBI to propel the Tigers to a 2-1 victory over Ole Miss on April 21.

Kuhn, whose mother is a 10-year survivor of Cervical Cancer, provided a RBI groundout to break a 1-1 tie during the bottom of the fourth inning. The heroics were set up by Falcon's leadoff single, and pinch runner Alex Boulet's back-to-back steals of second and third base.

Coach Torina's mother, Betty Dieter who is an Ovarian Cancer survivor, threw out one of the game's ceremonial first pitches.

"I thought it was a great effort by the fans," Torina said. "They all showed up wearing their teal. I feel like the women that we honored tonight really appreciated all of the effort of the Baton Rouge community. Hopefully, we were able to spread some awareness and gave those women some extra strength and support. I just really appreciate all they've had to go through in their lives."

KRISTEN HOBBS

When Beth Torina was introduced as LSU softball's fifth head coach in June 2012, she vowed to win in everything the program did and return to the Tigers to national prominence.

Torina accomplished just that during her inaugural campaign as LSU returned to Oklahoma City and the Women's College World Series.

Led by eight seniors, the Tigers knocked off two seeded teams and future SEC rivals in No. 8 Texas A&M and No. 9 Missouri along the way.

To get back to softball's biggest stage, LSU embraced the mantra of "Whatever It Takes". Torina gave puzzle pieces to the players ranging from academic success to key performances in practices and games throughout the season. Each piece had different people that had the 'it' factor, and the puzzle was completed leading into LSU's trip to the NCAA postseason.

The Tigers started NCAA Regional play with a dramatic 1-0 victory over Texas State. Juliana Santos capped a three-hit barrage in the seventh inning with a walkoff RBI-single.

Rachele Fico fired her second straight two-hit shutout in as many days as LSU stayed in the winner's bracket with a 2-0 triumph over Texas A&M.

In the NCAA College Station Regional championship, Brittany Mack put together a masterful performance in a 2-1 win over the Aggies. LSU scored its two runs on a pinch-hit sacrifice fly from Kailey McCasland and a Dylan Supak infield single that was followed by a A&M throwing error.

The Tigers opened up the NCAA Columbia Super Regional and exploded for a 6-1 victory by roughing up Missouri All-American hurler Chelsea Thomas. Allison Falcon led the way with a 2-for-3 effort and three RBIs.

After Missouri claimed a 5-1 game two win in 12 innings and overcame a career-best 17 strikeouts from Mack, LSU bounced back in the deciding contest aided by Simone Heyward's first extra base hit of the season. The timely three-run double came in the third inning and erased a 1-0 deficit.

Fico retired 12 of the final 14 Missouri hitters she faced, and Ashley Langoni squeezed the games last out with a runner on second base.

LSU carried the momentum into its opening game of the WCWS and fired out to a 2-0 lead on No. 1 California on a two-run, second inning single from Morgan Russell. The Golden Bears charged back with five unanswered runs highlighted by a three-run sixth inning.

Facing elimination in a 0-0 contest versus No. 19 South Florida, Andrews used alert base running to score the game's only run on a sacrifice popout in the sixth inning.

On a 1-0 offering, Falcon popped up to shortstop Kourtney Salvarola. Since Salvarola was playing drawn in with the bases loaded, Andrews tagged from the third base bag and scampered home. Salvarola's throw was offline which enabled Andrews to slide around the tag attempt head-first safely into home plate. Mack dealt a two-hit shutout to preserve the 1-0 win.

Defending national champion and No. 3 Arizona State ended LSU's run with a 6-0 win. The session attendance was 9,310, the largest number of fans to attend a softball game in program history.

For Yvette Girouard and the LSU softball program, the second run to the Women's College World Series was filled with as much joy, drama and excitement as the original.

Like in 2001, the Tigers accomplished the SEC triple crown and claimed the SEC Western Division, Regular Season and Tournament championships.

LSU also won a heart-stopping 13-inning affair and nearly pulled off an impossible feat at the WCWS.

After starting the 2004 campaign with a 5-3 record, the Tigers strung together a 17-game winning streak. LSU continued its climb up the polls sparked by a three-game sweep at No. 7 Alabama to end March and checked in with a No. 2 ranking heading into postseason play.

A trio of wins over Alabama, Auburn and Georgia, all ranked among the Top 15, allowed the Tigers to win their third SEC Tournament in five years.

Unlike 2001, LSU's quest to Oklahoma City didn't start inside the friendly confines of Tiger Park. Instead, the Tigers were shipped to Waco, Texas and Baylor University for the NCAA Regionals.

After wins over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi and Seton Hall, LSU found itself down 3-0 to Baylor after two innings. Camille Harris kickstarted a three-run third inning with a solo home run to left field. Three batters later, future All-American Leslie Klein belted a two-run triple down the right field line to even the score at 3-3.

The Tigers exploded for a quartet of runs in the 10th inning. Stephanie Hill and Lauren Delahoussaye provided RBIs coupled with a Baylor error and wild pitch.

The next day against Illinois, Julie Wiese jumpstarted LSU with a solo shot in the second inning followed by RBI hits from Delahoussaye in the third and fifth innings.

That would be more than enough run support for two-time All-American Kristin Schmidt. She was touched up for only an unearned run on three hits to go along with nine strikeouts as the Tigers raced past the Fighting Illini 4-1 to return to the WCWS.

Another Big 10 team, No. 6 Michigan, would bite the dust in LSU's opening game in Oklahoma City. After 11 scoreless frames, the Wolverines took a 2-0 advantage to open the 12th inning. In the home half, the Tigers used an RBI-single by Leigh Ann Danos and a passed ball to knot the score at 2-2.

LSU won the game in the 13th on a Harris infield single. After two throwing errors, Sara Fitzgerald crossed home for the game-winning run. In the circle, Schmidt fired all 13 innings and tallied 13 strikeouts.

Following a 2-0 setback to No. 2 UCLA, rain altered the WCWS schedule. The Tigers were faced with the task of winning three games in one day to advance to the championship game.

A Fitzgerald RBI-single in the fourth inning proved to be the game winner as LSU edged No. 4 Florida State 2-1 to start the day. Schmidt provided another 13 strikeouts and surrendered only one run on four hits.

The Tigers fought off elimination for a second time and erased an early 1-0 deficit against No. 5 California. Klein opened the second inning with a solo home run, Harris followed with a two-out, two-run double in the third and Delahoussaye tacked on an insurance run with an RBI-double during the sixth.

Schmidt added eight strikeouts and pitched around trouble to close out the 4-1 victory for her third win of the WCWS.

LSU was poised to finish out the hat trick and carried a 1-0 lead into the fifth inning. Seven outs away, the Golden Bears struck for a quartet of runs to take the win.

"What more could you ask for from your team," Girouard said after the game. "I told the team before we got off the bus this morning that we weren't leaving the park until they turned out the lights on us tonight and we are doing just that. Unfortunately, we came up just a little short.

"This team did everything my staff asked of them. They played with total heart. Kristin Schmidt pitched her heart out and this team never died. If I have ever coached a team that deserved to go to the national championship game, then it is certainly this group of girls."

Yvette Girouard's first season at LSU ended in storybook fashion as the Tigers racked up a school record 59 wins and qualified for the program's first Women's College World Series.

LSU also completed the SEC triple crown for the first time en route to the SEC Western Division, Regular Season and Tournament championships.

After splitting a doubleheader at No. 21 Louisiana-Lafayette on April 18, the Tigers reeled off 12 consecutive victories to climb up to No. 3 in the national rankings.

Girouard refocused her team after a 7-3 setback at Auburn in the regular season finale and fired back with a 6-0 win over Auburn to open the SEC Tournament.

Three days later, All-American Stephanie Hastings belted a solo home run that stayed just inside the left field foul pole to open the SEC Championship against No. 22 South Carolina.

The first-inning blast coupled with a stellar effort from SEC Player of the Year Britni Sneed in the circle were more than enough to avenge a 1-0 setback to the Gamecocks from the season before.

Sneed hurled a three-hitter to complete her undefeated SEC season and recorded a tournament-record 11 strikeouts against zero walks to secure the MVP honor and 1-0 triumph.

LSU opened NCAA Regional action with victories over Cornell, Penn State and No. 9 Arizona State before facing No. 19 Louisiana-Lafayette in the finals.

The Tigers broke through for a pair of runs in the third inning as Hastings and future All-American Trena Peel provided RBIs.

An Alana Addison homer brought ULL within 2-1, but Sneed shut the door on the Cajuns retiring 12 of the final 15 batters highlighted by a strikeout of Heather Bertrand to vault LSU to the Women's College World Series.

Following a 2-1 hard-fought, extra inning loss to No. 4 Stanford, the Tigers bounced back behind a Julie Wiese two-run homer to dismiss No. 15 Iowa and set up an elimination tussle with No. 5 Oklahoma, the defending national champion.

The teams battled deep into the night before LSU emerged with a gritty 2-1 triumph in the 13th inning. An errant throw off an Ashley Lewis ground ball allowed Jennifer Schuelke to cross the plate for the game winning run.

Sneed willed her way to an impressive 18 strikeouts, a program single-game record. She escaped multiple jams during extra innings, none more impressive than back-to-back Ks to get out of a bases loaded situation in the 10th.

The game was viewed by 1.57 million fans, a softball record at the time according to NCAA Productions.

Dr. William L. Jenkins

Interim President/ Interim Chancellor, LSU

Dr. William L. Jenkins is serving his second term as President of the Louisiana State University System, which has an annual budget of $3.4 billion and more than 54,000 students at 10 institutions, including four academic campuses, a law center, one of the world's leading obesity research centers, a statewide AgCenter extension service, two health science centers and 10 public hospitals.

Jenkins returned to his duties leading the LSU System as Interim President after serving until 2007 as the fifth system chief executive. In June he was also named the Interim Chancellor of the Baton Rouge LSU campus.

Prior to becoming System President, Dr. Jenkins, a veterinary scholar, held virtually every major administrative position at LSU, including provost and chancellor, since coming to the university as Dean of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine in 1988.

Jenkins' tenure as System President was marked by unprecedented growth and challenges, including destruction at LSU institutions in New Orleans in the aftermath of hurricanes in the fall of 2005.

Although faced with a fiscal crisis and deep budget cuts that disrupted academics and forced the furloughs and firings of thousands of LSU employees, Jenkins pressed for calm and reflexive responses to the calamities.

A South Africa native, Dr. Jenkins received his veterinary medicine degree from the University of Pretoria in 1958 and specialist credentials in 1968. Following his graduation, he came to the United States where, in 1970, he received his Ph.D in veterinary medicine from the University of Missouri in Columbia. He returned to South Africa where he practiced veterinary medicine for four years before joining the faculty at the University of Pretoria, advancing through the ranks to become professor and head of the Department of Veterinary Physiology, Pharmacology and Toxicology.

In 1978, Dr. Jenkins became a member of the faculty in the Department of Veterinary Physiology and Pharmacology at Texas A&M University. He was appointed dean of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine in 1988 and was named LSU's provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs in September 1993. Three years later in 1996, the LSU Board of Supervisors named him LSU's fifth Chancellor.

As chancellor, Dr. Jenkins led the reorganization of the main campus administration to make it more efficient and lead the effort to produce a strategic plan, measures that were major factors in the crafting of LSU's Flagship Agenda.

As a teacher and administrator, Dr. Jenkins has received numerous teaching and public service awards. In 1997, the Public Relations Association of Louisiana named him Communicator of the Year and the regional chapter of Toastmasters International presented him with its 1999 Communication and Leadership Award.

Other honors include the Vision of Excellence Award 2000 by the New Orleans Regional Chamber of Commerce and the New Orleans Chapter of MetroVision. In addition, his alma mater, the University of Pretoria, bestowed an Honorary Doctorate on Dr. Jenkins in September of 2000. The Southern Economic Development Conference also presented him with the Volunteer of the Year Award in 2004.

An active participant in national continuing education efforts, Dr. Jenkins has delivered more than 150 lectures and addresses to diverse groups in both the United States and abroad. The co-author of a textbook on veterinary pharmacology, Dr. Jenkins also has taught extensively at both the professional and graduate levels written more than 60 scientific articles and contributed 15 chapters to various collegiate textbooks.

Dr. Jenkins has been active in numerous professional and civic organizations as well as select national committees. He served on the National Institute of Health's Alcohol Abuse and Misuse on College Campuses Committee and on a special Steering Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools that reviewed accreditation criteria for colleges and universities. Dr. Jenkins also is a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges' Committee on Food and Society and is a member of the Governor's Advisory Commission on Coastal Restoration and Conservation.

In addition, he has served on a number of public boards such as the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities, The Nature Conservancy of Louisiana, Teach for America South Louisiana, and the Greater Baton Rouge Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Jenkins and his wife, Peggy, have four children—Sharon, Gwynn, Anthea, and Warren—and nine grandchildren.

Dr. Bill DeMastes

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Bill DeMastes, a professor of English at LSU, is in his first year as Faculty Athletics Representative. Dr. Demastes earned his Ph.D in English in 1986 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a Field of Study of Drama as Genre and a specialization in 20th-Century American and British Drama. He earned his masters in English in June 1979 from the University of Georgia in Athens where he specialized in 19th-Century American Literature.

Education

At LSU, he served as Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 2001-2004 and Director of Undergraduate Studies for the Department of English from 1999-2001 and 2010-11. He has also served as Associate Chair of the Department of English (1998-99); Director of the Master of Arts in Liberal Arts Program (1996-2004); and Director of Graduate Studies in the Department of English (1992-94; 2005-06).

He was honored with the LSU Alumni Association Faculty Excellence Award in 2000 and in 2002 won the LSU Distinguished Faculty Award. He was named in 2009 an LSU Rainmaker which is given to the top 100 LSU Faculty. In 2010 he received the Tiger Athletic Foundation Undergraduate Teaching Award and in the summer of 2011 he was named the Harry Ransom Summer Fellowship recipient by the University of Texas.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

LSU

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his fifth year at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community. LSU's prominence was evident in the final 2011-12 Capital One Cup standings that recognize the nation's best athletic programs. The Tigers finished fourth in both the men's and women's Capital One Cup competition, one of only two schools in the country – and the only one in the SEC – to rank in the top four in both categories.

Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. Alleva's role at LSU was further expanded in August of 2009 when vice chancellor was added to his title by the LSU Board of Supervisors. It is the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

Alleva is currently serving a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, reinforcing his position as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program – "LSU: Thru and True" – to ensure the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary program. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set out goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Alleva's vision will keep LSU among the nation's leaders in athletic facilities. He launched an aggressive fund-raising campaign to replace several hundred windows on Tiger Stadium that were in disrepair and a new coating to the façade of the structure is bringing the old stadium to new life. A renovated gating system on the west side of the stadium debuted in the fall of 2012 to include a plaza that celebrates LSU's football national championship and recognition walls that honor Tiger All-Americans.

Also in the fall of 2012, LSU began construction on an expansion of the South End Zone of the stadium – a project that will add premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-the-art video boards – continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports.

Under Alleva's direction, LSU's world-renowned track and field program received a state-of-the-art running surface in 2010 when a new track was installed in Bernie Moore Stadium. Extensive renovations to the Tiger soccer facility were completed last fall, and future plans include a new gymnastics practice facility, a tennis complex and renovations to the Maravich Center and Carl Maddox Field House.

Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to compete on one of the most challenging courses in the country. The renovated course helped prepare Tiger golfers John Peterson and Austin Ernst, respectively, to win 2011 NCAA men's and women's individual championships, marking the first time both titles were claimed by players from the same school. The Lady Tiger golfers have finished third at the NCAA Championships two years in a row, marking the highest finishes in LSU history.

LSU Athletics completed another highly successful year in 2011-12 as 18 of the Tigers' 20 varsity sports participated in NCAA post-season competition. The year was highlighted by the football team's undefeated regular season, an SEC championship and an appearance in the BCS National Championship Game. The Lady Tiger track and field team captured the SEC championship while the LSU softball squad advanced to the Women's College World Series. The Fighting Tiger baseball team won the 2012 SEC championship, and LSU led the nation in attendance for the 17th straight season. The 2011-12 season marked the first time in school history that LSU won both the SEC title in both football and baseball in the same athletic year.

But the 2011-12 year was about more than just athletic success. Living up to Alleva's mantra of "competition, classroom, community," LSU student-athletes logged more than 3,700 hours in community service work across 20 sports through LSU's Geaux Givers program. And 62 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university during LSU commencement ceremonies in May. Outstanding performances of the 2010-11 athletic season included the exploits of the Fighting Tiger football squad that posted an 11-2 mark – including a Cotton Bowl victory – and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation. The year also featured Top 5 national finishes both indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams.

In 2008-09, all 20 LSU sports competed in NCAA postseason play for the first time in school history and the Tiger baseball team won the national championship. LSU ranked second among Southeastern Conference teams in the Learfield Director's Cup All-Sports standings and finished in the Top 20 for the sixth year in a row.

With a strong commitment to academics, Alleva ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that provides student-athletes the resources necessary for success in the classroom and personal development. The facility was recently enhanced by the addition of a media training center that gives student-athletes valuable assistance in improving their communications skills.

And with a strong emphasis on community service and outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" program fosters a relationship between the local community and LSU student-athletes, who regularly participate in philanthropic events. In addition, Alleva has bolstered the department's L-Club program to reach out and connect with former student-athletes.

Alleva oversees a staff of outstanding coaches and he has made critical additions to LSU's coaching staff over the past two years. He hired former LSU guard Johnny Jones in April to breathe new life and enthusiasm into the men's basketball program and recently added Julia Sell as the new women's tennis coach. Last year, he lured the dynamic Nikki Caldwell to LSU to coach the Lady Tiger basketball team and then hired Beth Torina to direct the Tiger softball program, both of whom immediately returned their respective programs to NCAA post-season success.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit not only LSU but all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a two-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts nearly 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva has served on numerous national committees throughout his career including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

He became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny.

Verge Ausberry

Senior Associate AD/Operations and Administration

A former LSU football standout, Verge Ausberry joined the athletics administrative staff in August 2001 as the Associate Athletics Director for Operations. He was appointed to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director in May 2006.

Ausberry supervises and is responsible for football operations and football scheduling. He also oversees the LSU men's and women's track and field programs, the equipment staff, the strength and conditioning staff, the Dr. Martin Broussard training room, the video department and football game management.

Ausberry, from New Iberia, La., played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was part of two SEC championship teams, playing on teams that went to four bowl games.

Before joining the LSU athletic administration, he was very closely involved in the athletic program, first serving for almost seven years as a member of LSU's highly regarded Academic Center for Athletes.

After leaving the Academic Center, he moved in July 1999 to the Tiger Athletic Foundation staff as part of LSU's fundraising arm.

Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May of 1990, his Master of Education degree in administration, supervision and certification in child welfare in May of 1992 and his specialist in higher education administration in 2004. He is presently a doctoral candidate in higher education administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans and they have two boys, Austin(8) and Jaiden(7).

Miriam Segar

Senior Associate AD/Senior Woman Administrator

Former LSU women's basketball player Miriam Segar has been a part of the athletics administration since June of 1995 and was most recently named Senior Associate AD and the department's Senior Woman Administrator after having served as Associate Athletics Director for Student Services since April 2007. She had served as Assistant Athletics Director since 2004.

As LSU's Senior Woman Administrator, Segar's responsibilities include oversight of the highly successful Tiger Olympic Sports program including 17 men's and women's sports. Segar began her administrative career at LSU as the compliance coordinator where she served for three years. Following that, in 1998, Segar was named the director of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program where she worked until 2001 when she became the Director of Student Services.

While working with CHAMPS/Life Skills, Segar guided the program to the Division I Athletic Directors Program of Excellence Award in 2001.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Segar spent one year at the SEC office as the championships assistant and the officiating assistant, assisting in the management of all SEC championships and tournaments and the coordination of women's basketball officials.

Segar, the 2006 Athletic Department Female Alumnus of the Year, was a three-year captain for the Lady Tigers basketball team and received four letters from 1990 to 1994. She earned the 1994 NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship and was a member of the 1994 NCAA All-Academic team.

Segar and her husband Jamie have four children – Grant, Reid, Maggie and Hayes.

Mark Ewing

Senior Associate AD/Business

Mark Ewing, a 28-year employee of Louisiana State University, is in his 12th year with the Athletics Department, and serves as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Business and the department's Chief Financial Officer.

His duties as the department's Chief Financial Officer includes oversight of the departments over $95 million budget, management of the athletic business office, oversight of all travel, human resources, and purchasing. He also supervises the Athletic Ticket Office and LSU SportShop and serves as the liaison for concession operations. He is responsible for the department's financial forecasting and provides the financial information necessary for funding athletic construction and maintenance projects. He also serves as the department's administrator for men's and women's golf.

Ewing came to athletics from LSU's Office of Budget and Planning. He served as LSU's Budget Director overseeing the development and management of the university's over $360 million operating budget.

Ewing, who is a native of Pointe Coupee Parish, received a bachelor's degree in finance from LSU in 1978 and a master's degree in public administration from LSU in 1995.

Ewing and his wife, Gail, have three daughters: Andrea and her husband Cody Lee, Arleen and her husband John Daniel, and Molly Sue. He also has one granddaughter – Ainsley Grace.

Herb Vincent

Associate Vice-Chancellor for University Relations
Senior Associate AD/External Affairs

Herb Vincent serves in the dual position of Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs in the athletic department and Associate Vice Chancellor for University Relations. He was appointed Senior Associate AD in May of 2006 and assumed the additional duties of oversight of University Relations in August of 2009.

Vincent manages communications and serves as the primary public relations officer for the University and all its entities. In his role in athletics, he supervises the sports information office and marketing and promotions office, serves as the primary liaison with LSU Sports Properties, and is the department administrator for the sport of baseball.

Vincent was the LSU sports information director from July 1988 to July 2000. During that time he was named Assistant AD in November of 1989, and then was elevated to Associate AD for Communications in 1992.

In August of 2000 Vincent became Vice President for Communications for the College Sports Southeast regional cable network, headquartered in Birmingham, Ala., before returning to LSU in 2002.

He earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from LSU in 1983 and worked as a student assistant in the sports information office directed by CoSIDA Hall of Famer Paul Manasseh during his undergraduate years.

After graduating from LSU, Vincent spent the 1984 season as assistant public relations director for the United States Football League's New Orleans Breakers. In 1985, he was assistant PR director for the USFL's Los Angeles Express and was promoted during the season to the public relations staff's top position.

Vincent also served one year as assistant SID and publications director at Louisiana-Lafayette and two years as assistant director of public relations for the Southeastern Conference prior to joining LSU in 1988.

Vincent is the author of a book on the history of LSU football, "The LSU Football Vault." He is married to the former Jamey Cavacini of Versailles, Ky., and they have one daughter, Kennedy.

Bo Bahnsen

Senior Associate AD/Compliance and Planning

Returning in 2009 to serve the department in the Compliance Office, Bahnsen is once again proving to be a very versatile member of the athletic department.

Before moving back to Compliance, Bahnsen served the previous five years, in a valuable role as Associate Athletics Director for Internal Relations, overseeing the ticket office and all customer service operations.

Prior to December of 2003, Bahnsen's primary responsibility for the previous 14 years was to serve as LSU's NCAA compliance officer.

Bahnsen served as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate at LSU. In 1982, he became the administrative assistant for the men's basketball team, where he worked for five years before moving into athletics administration as director of purchasing and travel for two years.

In July 1987, he became administrative assistant to Athletics Director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office and departmental travel operations until his promotion in 1989. In 1989, he was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer as assistant athletics director, and then was promoted to associate AD in 1996.

Bahnsen has been responsible for overseeing the successful implementation of LSU's Tradition Fund Program, a football-seating plan that requires contributions for the right to purchase approximately 45,000 seats in Tiger Stadium. In 2009, he helped organize the highly successful LSU celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Men's Basketball Program.

A native of Wharton, Texas, Bahnsen attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education.

Bahnsen, 53, is married to the former Karen Mayson, a former LSU golfer and current head coach of the Lady Tigers golf program. The couple has two children, Darren and Devin.

Eddie Nuñez
Senior Associate AD/Internal Operations

Eddie Nuñez joined the Athletics Department in October 2003 as the Director of Game and Event Management and was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Operations and Project Development in June of 2007 and Senior Associate Athletic Director in 2009.

As a member of the senior staff, Nuñez's responsibilities include supervision of the men's basketball program, men's tennis program and the women's tennis program. He also supervises the Event Management department as well as directs all capital projects for the athletic department. Under his guidance, the athletic department has experienced over $220 million dollars in renovations and construction of athletic facility projects. Most recently this included the preservation of Tiger Stadium renovations.

Nuñez is the Athletic Department's liaison with the Tiger Athletic Foundation and oversees all project development as well as assist in fundraising/development. He also represents the athletics department on various University and community committees.

Nuñez came to LSU after two years as the Director of Game and Event Management at Vanderbilt University. At Vanderbilt, along with directing the Game and Event Management department, he also assisted in construction of a New Soccer/Lacrosse Stadium, a New Basketball Practice Facility and a New Baseball stadium as well as the renovation of several other facilities including renovation of their track facility. Prior to that, Nuñez served as men's basketball administrative assistant at Marquette University for one year and two years as men's basketball graduate assistant and head equipment manager for coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida. Nuñez also played two seasons on the Florida basketball team in 1997 and 1998. He transferred to Florida after playing two years at Miami-Dade Community College.

The native of Miami, Fla., received his associate degree in arts and architecture from Miami-Dade Community College in 1995, his bachelor's in sports management from the University of Florida in 1998 and his masters in sports administration from Florida in 2000. He is married to the former Jane Hess and the couple has two daughters, Elizabeth Kendall Nuñez (4) and Anna Caldwell Nuñez (1).

Ronnie Haliburton
Senior Associate AD/Athletic Facility Management

Ronnie Haliburton, who served as director of facility services in the LSU Athletics Department for three years, was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Athletic Facility Management in March 2007.

Haliburton came to the athletics department in December of 2003 from LSU's facility maintenance department, where he served as manager for five years. He was responsible for the overall management of custodial operations, special events crews, stock room inventory and equipment repair.

Haliburton played as a tight end for the LSU football team from 1986-89, and was a member of two Southeastern Conference championship teams. He later played for the Denver Broncos for three years.

He first joined LSU in an administrative capacity in 1994 as resident assistant of Broussard Hall, then the school's athletic dormitory, before moving to the weight room as a student assistant strength coach.

Haliburton became a resident manager in 1996 before being named coordinator of residence life later that year. In 1998, he became Manager of Facility Maintenance at LSU.

Emmett David
Associate AD/Facility and Project Development

Emmett David joined the LSU Athletics Department in 2012 after serving as Director of the Office of Planning Design and Construction at LSU since June of 1996.

He will assist in facility and project development for the athletics department including the new South Stadium addition and future projects for such sports as tennis and gymnastics.

Among his responsibilities for the University was to serve as facility officer for Doctoral I Research Institution consisting of 11.2 million gross square feet with 250 primary buildings. He also was responsible for the 5-year Capital Outlay project planning of some $484 million, deferred maintenance reporting and funding; and, ADA and Life Safety Code deficiency projects, budgets and tracking of expenditures of some $200 million. He was responsible for nearly $800,000 in physical development on campus with projects such as Choppin Annex, Residential College, Business Education Complex, Raphael Semmes Parking Garage and numerous major maintenance, repair and restoration projects.

He also coordinated and implemented master plans for such departments as Parking and Traffic, Athletics, Veterinary Medicine, Student Health Center, Union, South Campus and Residential Life.

David developed long range planning of future projects and the impact of associated displacement and monitored and managed space inventory. He served as joint director of facilities for emergency advisory conditions to the University Emergency Operations Center and also served as a Staff Senator.

Prior to his employment by LSU, he served as Project Review Architect for the Louisiana State Fire Marshal (1993-96) and also maintained a private practice during the time. He also served as project manager and project architect for several Louisiana architectural firms prior to 1993.

David graduated from LSU with a Bachelor of Architecture in 1982 and his Master of Public Administration in 2006. He is a registered licensed architect by the state of Louisiana.

Brian Broussard
Assistant AD/Director of Ticket Operations

A 16-year veteran of the Athletics Department, including 12 years as ticket manager, Brian Broussard was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations in July 2007.

Broussard is responsible for revenue in excess of $50 million, which includes the management of ticket and parking sales and renewals for all sports, as well as Tradition Fund donations for football, men's basketball and baseball.

Broussard began at LSU in August 1996 as an assistant ticket manager responsible for men's basketball sales and the day-to-day operations of ticket office. In March 2000, he was promoted to ticket manager, becoming responsible for the ticketing in all sports.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Broussard was the ticket manager at Northwestern State in 1996. He worked as a promotions assistant at the University of Miami in 1995 and was the gameday club manager for the New Orleans Saints in 1994.

The Gretna native earned his bachelor's degree in political science from LSU in 1993. He is married to the former Aimee Hodges of Alexandria.

Matt Shanklin
Assistant AD/Marketing

Matt Shanklin begins his second year at LSU serving as the Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing and as the General Business Manager for LSU Sports Properties, the multi-media rights holder for Tiger Athletics. Previously, Shanklin served 20 years as the Associate Athletic Director of Marketing and Licensing at the University of Arkansas.

While at Arkansas, Shanklin was in charge of all department marketing/promotions, corporate sponsorships, advertising sales and coordinated all sales and programming for the football, basketball and baseball video boards. He was instrumental in developing the HogPen, a tailgating area for fans inside Baum Stadium, the Hog Spa hot tub area at Baum Stadium and the RBI Girls. Shanklin was instrumental in establishing the school's first baseball radio network in 1992, one of the nation's largest with more than 25 affiliates statewide as well as creating the first Hispanic radio network for the University of Arkansas. In 1998, Shanklin became the university's licensing coordinator and under his direction, licensing revenues increased every quarter.

Shanklin was assistant marketing director at East Carolina University for a year before going to Arkansas. He had served as an intern at Arkansas for five months before joining the ECU staff.

A 1984 graduate of South Mecklenburg (N.C.) High School in Charlotte, N.C., where he lettered in baseball and soccer, Shanklin earned his degree in communications from North Carolina-Wilmington in 1988.

A graduate of Ohio University's highly respected sports administration program, Shanklin earned a master's degree in that program in the fall of 1989.

An avid golfer, Shanklin married the former Missy Emmerson of Jacksonville, Texas, in 2003. She has a daughter, Jordan (17), and they are also the parents of Barbara Blake (7) and Isabella Grace (5).

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media members are encouraged to apply for season credentials through LSUsports.net/media. A 2013 season media provides access to the press box at Tiger Park and all of its working media areas.

For individual games, requests should be made at least 48 hours in advance by contacting Matt Dunaway at mdunaway@lsu.edu in the LSU Sports Information Office.

Passes may be picked up starting 60 minutes prior to first pitch at the Media Will Call area located outside the Tiger Park Ticket Office.

VISITING RADIO

A phone line is located inside the press box for visiting radio broadcasts for Southeastern Conference opponents. Please inform SID Matt Dunaway if you wish to broadcast your game on the radio.

Non-conference opponents wishing to do radio broadcasts must contact Director of Broadcasting Jim Hawthorne of the LSU Sports Network at (225) 578-1882.

GAME INFORMATION

Each game day media will be provided with a program that includes updated notes, statistics and wireless internet information for the press box at Tiger Park.

Final box score and stat books which includes play-by-play will be available shortly following each game.

POST MATCH INTERVIEWS

Interviews with players and coaches are done on the field post game after the team's 10-minute cooling off period following the day's final game. Please inform SID Matt Dunaway if you need to request a specific player.

No interviews will be held between games of a doubleheader or after the first game of tournament play.

For assistance with opposing coaches and players, contact that school's SID for their postmatch media procedures.

COVERING PRACTICES

LSU softball practices generally range from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at Tiger Park. Most practice sessions are open to the media but are subject to change. During the season, the Tigers have most Mondays off from practice.

Interviews with coaches and players are held before practice based on player class schedules and team travel.

Advance notice, preferably 24 hours, is needed for all interview requests. Please schedule all interviews by contacting SID Matt Dunaway at (225) 578-1869 or mdunaway@lsu.edu.

SEC MEDIA INFORMATION

Chevonne Mansfield is the softball media relations contact for the Southeastern Conference. She can be reached at cmansfield@sec.org or via phone at (205) 458-3000.

Each Monday, the league will name a Player of the Week, a Pitcher of the Week and a Freshman of the Week throughout the 2013 season.

The SEC Website, SECSports.com, can be accessed 24/7/365 to access updated standings, statistics and notes.

LSU SOFTBALL ON THE RADIO

The LSU Sports Radio Network gives Tiger softball one of the most comprehensive audiences across the nation. As Tiger softball begins its 17th season of extensive radio coverage, the LSU Sports Radio Network is scheduled to carry 30 games which includes 21 of the team's 24 SEC contests.

The LSU Sports Radio Network brings Tiger softball to its many fans with broadcasts in the Baton Rouge area on 104.9 FM.

Patrick Wright, the voice of Tiger softball for the previous 16 seasons, will provide all of the play-by-play action. Wright also is the voice of LSU women's basketball team and serves as one of the locker room reporters for radio broadcasts of LSU football games.

For the 17th season, LSU Senior Associate SID Kent Lowe will serve as the color analyst for Tiger softball home games. LSU Associate SID Matt Dunaway joins Wright for his fifth season on the air during road games.

The LSU Sports Radio Network also will cover all of the Tigers postseason games from the SEC and NCAA Tournaments.

LSU SOFTBALL ON THE INTERNET

The LSU softball team was one of the first collegiate softball teams to have its games broadcast over the internet. All softball broadcasts can be heard inside the GeauxZone at LSUsports.net/live.

Members of the GeauxZone also have access to these exclusive broadcasts on demand with the purchase of a subscription. Visit LSUsports.net to join the GeauxZone today.

LSU SOFTBALL ON TELEVISION

LSU softball will have 10 games televised during the 2013 season highlighted by a trio of games on the ESPN family of networks.

As part of the SEC on ESPN television deal, LSU will have games against Texas A&M (April 13), Alabama (April 25) and Georgia (May 5). Over the first four seasons of the television deal, the Tigers have had 19 SEC contests carried by the ESPN family of networks.

For the third consecutive season, all seven games of the SEC Tournament also will be televised by ESPN and ESPNU. The three-day tournament will be hosted by Kentucky.

As part of the SEC's regional television package, LSU will meet Texas A&M (April 14) on FSN/SportsSouth whereas the Georgia game (May 4) has been picked up by CSS.

In addition, Cox Sports Television will broadcast five LSU softball games during the season. Check LSUsports.net at a later date for that schedule.

Camp staff will include: current LSU coaching staff, current and former LSU players, current and former collegiate athletes, professional athletes and select college coaches from the across the country.

ALL SKILLS CAMP • JUNE 16-19

AGES 4-14 • OVERNIGHT AND DAY CAMPER OPTIONS

The All Skills Camp will focus on the development of all fundamental skills of the game. The camp staff will work with all skill levels in the areas of hitting, bunting, base running, infield and outfield play, pitching, catching and game competition. Included in this camp are demonstrations, drills, and position specific work. Campers will participate in a strength and conditioning session, and each camper will have their swing video analyzed.

PITCHING/CATCHING CAMP • JUNE 24-25

AGES 4-18 • DAY CAMP • AGES 4-6: 9 A.M.-12 P.M. • AGES 7-18: 9 A.M.-4 P.M.

Campers will be trained by a collegiate level staff as well as former and current LSU players, professional players and other collegiate players. Pitchers will be divided by skill level and will learn the mechanics of pitching, improve their speed and accuracy and/or learn and develop movement pitches. An experienced catching staff will train the catchers on the skills of blocking, receiving, throwing, calling pitches and much more. Each session, the pitchers and catchers will work together in order to immediately transfer skills into full speed movements.

HITTING/SLAPPING • JUNE 26-27

AGES 4-18 • DAY CAMP • AGES 4-6: 9 A.M.-12 P.M. • AGES 7-18: 9 A.M.-4 P.M.

Campers will be trained by a collegiate level staff as well as former and current LSU players, professional players and other collegiate players. Hitters and slappers will spend both days developing a strong fundamental base before moving into movement pitches, contact points, power and placement. Each day will be a mix of drills, live swings, vision, and strength training.
